

RICK'S

CUSTOM FENCING & DECKING

CONTACT: Nicole Flescher
503-648-7830 ext. 115
nicole.flescher@ricksfencing.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 10, 2007

RICK'S FENCING ANNOUNCES TRI-CITIES STORE MANAGER

Tri-Cities, WA— Rick Stanley, President and CEO of Rick's Custom Fencing & Decking has announced the appointment of John Powell as the Tri-Cities Store Manager. Rick's Custom Fencing & Decking is one of the Northwest's leading companies in the fencing and decking industry and is slated to open its sixth store in Kennewick, Washington on January 1, 2007.

"I am truly excited about this new career opportunity and I look forward to becoming a member of the Rick's Fencing and Decking family. I have been very impressed with the company thus far and can't wait to get started," said Powell.

John has an Associate of Business Degree with an emphasis in Business Management and a Certificate of Accounting from LDS Business College. John is an Eagle Scout and awarded a College Entrepreneurial Scholarship.

John is a 9- year veteran in business and management, where he has been working for the Sportsman's Warehouse in Kennewick, Washington as the Store Manager. John has been managing eight departments and sixty employees. "We're excited to have John on board and expect big things from John and the Tri-Cities store," said Rick.

John and his wife, Cindy, are residents of Pasco Washington, with strong ties to family and the local community. They have two children – Kelsey, age 6 and Logan, age 4. "We also are expecting another child in February, which will make for a very eventful couple of months when the Kennewick location opens," said Powell.

For further information on Rick's Custom Fencing and Decking, visit www.RicksFencing.com.

###