Custom Fencing and Decking Company Expanding to Tri-Cities Market

KENNEWICK, Washington (October 24, 2006) – A leading northwest custom fencing and decking retailer has announced the location of its newest facility in Kennewick, Washington.

Rick's Custom Fencing and Decking, which currently operates five stores in the Pacific Northwest, has announced the location for its sixth store. The store, which plans to begin retail operations on February 1, 2007, will be located on 9120 W Clearwater Avenue in Kennewick. The property development and 5,000 square foot facility will be constructed by Rick's Custom Fencing & Decking, Inc. under the management of David Drinkwine Property Acquisitions and Development Manager. Ground breaking is set for November 1, 2006.

Rick's Custom Fencing and Decking specializes in designing and installing vinyl, cedar, composite and chain link fencing and decking. In addition, they operate a lumberyard where customers can purchase supplies for their own do-it-yourself installations.

The Kennewick location will serve the greater Tri-Cities area and will employ 15 to 20 local residents. In response to the expansion of Rick's Custom Fencing and Decking to the Tri-Cities area, Kennewick Mayor James R. Beaver said, "We are excited to welcome you to our community, and look forward to a successful partnership."

Rick's Custom Fencing & Decking was founded in 1980 by Rick and Marlene Stanley. Currently, it has locations in Hillsboro, Gresham, Salem, Vancouver and Bend and has grown to be one of the largest retailers of fencing and decking in the Pacific Northwest.
