Rick's Custom Fencing & Decking Launches New Product Line

HILLSBORO, OR, February 26 – Rick's Custom Fencing & Decking, the largest fencing and decking company in the Pacific Northwest, is proud to announce it's newest fencing product line, Oasis Simulated Rock Fencing.

Oasis Rock Fencing is a simulated rock fencing that looks and feels like granite. Oasis Rock Fencing is steel reinforced for superior wind resistance, thermally stable for extreme weather conditions, UV stabilized, maintenance free, graffiti resistant, and comes with a lifetime warranty.

"We are excited to expand our product line in order to better serve our customers," stated Dave Harkin, C.O.O. of Rick's Custom Fencing & Decking. "Rick's Fencing prides it's self in carrying the most innovative and highest quality of products."

Oasis fencing is a revolutionary product made of Polyethylene. Available in Gray and Brown Granite, the Oasis Fencing fits into our Pacific North West landscapes with a natural look and feel.

Oasis Rock Fencing materials are available for the do-it-yourselfer or installed by our professional installation crews. Call one of our six locations for additional information, product specifications, and pricing.
