TRI-CITIES STORE HIRES NEW SALES ASSOCIATES

The Tri-City store, located in Kennewick, Washington opened in April of 2007. Under the leadership of Store Manager, John Powell, the Tri-Cities store has exceeded our expectations and continues to grow. To accommodate the growth of the store, Rick's Fencing has hired three new Sales Associates.

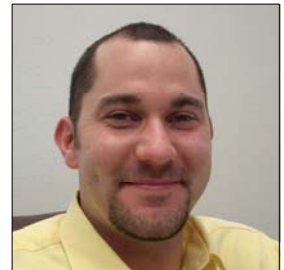

Cody Simmelink:

Cody was born and raised in Tri-Cities, Washington! He has a beautiful wife, Buffy, to whom he has been married to for ten years (and who he sees many more wonderful years on the horizon with) They have two boys, Conner—8 and Camden—6. Cody coached both Little League and Adult Baseball. He had been with Rick's since January 1st 2008, and he loves working here!

David Jay Johnson:

David just moved to the Tri-Cities this past December from Knoxville, Tennessee. He made the move to be closer to family and he has certainly enjoyed it so far. David was born in the Northwest and says it's good to be home. David enjoys the outdoors, hunting, fishing, hiking, camping and playing sports. Although he was born

Troy Hexum:

Troy has lived in the Tri-Cities his whole life. He came to work for Rick's in January of 2008. Troy is married to Andrea and has four children Drew—17, McKaela—13, Quincey—3 and, Kian—2. In his spare time he enjoys snowboarding, golf, and spending time with his family. Before he came to Rick's, he owned a pool installation company for many years. Troy has really enjoyed his time with Rick's and is looking forward to making it a career!
